

TAOIST COWBOYS

"Do you want a beer?"
"No, I Don't think I oughta."
In the basement
Listening to the Taoist Cowboys and wondering who'll win
the World Series
Elvis Died for all of us
"Uea, gimme one"
She loves me - Doo do

I think I'll get a girlfriend At Walgreens. they have generic no-no's
But we don't do
that anymore around here
We just play with our instruments
In the basement
"I'll have another one."
And follow "the way."

I wanna hold your I Ching

Down by the muddy stream
"Those Musician types
sure do have rhythm"
They sing off key these days
In the Basement
Red Black Label cans pile up
"In the Trash is where we put 'em" — by Wes Snyder

AT GRYPHON'S (BURTS) 9 p.m.

with THE JASPER TABERNACLE BOYS CHOIR

SATURDAY JAN 20

20th and Highland — in the Fort

PART OF THE TOM BOWLER ARTS FESTIVAL, JAN 18-20